

Distinguished Speakers

2000–2001

Randall R. Bovbjerg
Nancy Neveloff Dubler
Joan H. Krause
Theodore R. Marmor
Robert L. Schwartz

2001–2002

Thomas B. (Tim) Leary
Susan M. Wolf
John T. (Jack) Boese
Michael Jacobs
Arti K. Rai

2002–2003

Howard Dean
Daniel Troy
Maxwell J. Mehlman
Dana Bowen Matthew
Judy Waxman

2003–2004

John R. Hellow
Leslie Norwalk
William Sage
Jack Schwartz
Judith Daar

2004–2005

George Annas
Mary Crossley
Russell Korobkin
Peter Liebold
Larry Palmer

2005–2006

Alex Azar
Gregg Bloche
Catherine Hanssens
John Jacobi
Jay Wolfson

2006–2007

Kathleen Boozang
David O. Meltzer
Pamela H. Bucy
Peter D. Jacobson
William A. Sarraile

CENTER FOR HEALTH LAW STUDIES

Saint Louis University's Center for Health Law Studies represents the University's sustained commitment to education, research, policy analysis, publication and service. The Center leverages the expertise the School has developed over the past 20 years of health law teaching and research. The Center is home to the Saint Louis University Journal of Health Law & Policy and the most robust and celebrated health law curriculum in the country. For further information go to law.slu.edu/healthlaw.

Distinguished Speaker Series

Beginning in 2000, the Center formally instituted a Distinguished Speaker Series. As the Series continues, our students and faculty benefit from the speakers' diversity of perspectives and opinions. In addition to gaining the participation of the country's leading health law scholars, our Distinguished Speaker Series has attracted former Vermont Governor and Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, Howard Dean; former FDA Chief Counsel, Daniel Troy; Vice-President for Health and Reproductive Rights for the National Women's Law Center, Judy Waxman; Commissioner for the Federal Trade Commission, Tim Leary; Principal Research Associate with the Urban Institute, Randall Bovbjerg; Deputy Administrator and Chief Operations Officer, Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Leslie Norwalk; and Executive Vice President and Chief Executive Officer, American Health Law Association, Peter Liebold.

The experience continues in 2007–2008 and is sure to be valuable to students and faculty again as this year's Distinguished Speakers share their insights on a variety of current topics.

Practitioner in Residence

The Center's Practitioner-in-Residence Program allows a health law attorney to visit the School of Law each year. The time in residence provides the practitioner the opportunity to reflect on the practice of law while offering students and faculty insight into current practice trends in health law. Past practitioners include Malcolm J. Harkins, III, Vence Bonham, Cliff Barnes and Beth Schermer.

Distinguished Speaker Series

FALL — Oct. 9

Gregory M. Luce
Partner and Co-chair, Health Law Practice Group, Jones Day, Washington, D.C.

Greg Luce is co-chair of the health care practice at Jones Day. His experience includes health care litigation and regulatory matters, and he previously served as assistant attorney general representing the health agencies of Virginia. In private practice, Mr. Luce has represented the American Hospital Association, health care providers and institutions in litigation involving fraud and abuse enforcement, "patient antidumping" under COBRA, Medicare reimbursement and compliance programs. His current areas of practice include counseling and defense of health care providers, suppliers, pharmaceutical companies and physicians under state and federal fraud and abuse laws and the False Claims Act. Mr. Luce recently represented numerous not-for-profit hospital clients defending against class action suits. Mr. Luce is a member of the ABA Health Law Section, the Virginia State Bar Health Law Section and the AHLA, having also served on the board of directors from 1995-2001. Recently, he was elected to the inaugural class of Fellows of the AHLA. He is listed in Who's Who in American Law and The Best Lawyers in America and was named one of the "leaders in their field" in the 2007 edition of Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business.

FALL — Nov. 14

Rep. Connie L. Johnson
Minority Whip, Missouri State Legislature; Of Counsel, Armstrong Teasdale LLP

Ms. Johnson received a J.D./M.H.A. from Saint Louis University in 1996. In 2000, she was elected to the Missouri House of Representatives to serve the 61st District. She is now serving her second term in House Leadership as the Minority Whip. At Armstrong Teasdale LLP in St. Louis, she works in the litigation practice group with emphasis on medical malpractice and complex torts. Prior to being elected to the House of Representatives, Johnson served as the Assistant to the Director of the Division of Aging for the Missouri Department of Social Services, where she assisted with daily management and operations for one of the state's largest regulating divisions.

SPRING — Jan. 28

Timothy Westmoreland
Visiting Professor of Law, Georgetown University, Senior Scholar, Georgetown Health Law Institute, Research Professor of Public Policy, Georgetown Public Policy Institute

Professor Westmoreland holds academic posts in law and public policy at Georgetown University and was recently named Senior Scholar of the Georgetown Health Law Institute. He served as counsel to the Subcommittee on Health and the Environment in the U.S. House of Representatives from 1979 to 1995. Westmoreland taught in the Georgetown Law Center's Federal Legislation Clinic and was counsel to the Koop-Kessler Advisory Committee on Tobacco Policy and Public Health. He was senior advisor on HIV/AIDS to the Kaiser Family Foundation and lobbied for the Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation. From 1999 until 2001, he was the director of the Federal Medicaid program. At Georgetown, he teaches about health law, federal budget policy, and legislation and statutory interpretation. He is a recipient of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Investigator in Health Policy Research Award.

SPRING — March 11

Wendy K. Mariner
Professor of Law, School of Law, Professor of Health Law and Director, Patient Rights Program, School of Public Health, Professor of Socio-Medical Sciences, School of Medicine, Boston University

Before joining Boston University, Professor Mariner taught health law at Harvard Schools of Public Health and Medicine. She has served as a member of numerous boards and commissions, including the Massachusetts Health Facilities Appeals Board, the NIH's AIDS Policy Advisory Committee, the IOM's Committees on the Ryan White CARE Act and the Children's Vaccine Initiative, the CIOMS/WHO Steering Committee for the International Ethical Guidelines for Biomedical Research, and the Executive Board of the APHA. Currently, she serves on the Massachusetts Health Care Quality and Cost Council Advisory Committee. She is a founding member of the Committee for Universal Patient Rights and the New England Coalition for Law and Public Health. Mariner is a member of the Editorial Boards of the Journal of Health Politics, Policy & Law, the Journal of Law, Medicine & Ethics, and the Journal of Health Law and served as Contributing Editor for Health Law and Ethics of the American Journal of Public Health. Professor Mariner is a prolific scholar with over 100 publications in the legal, medical and health policy literature and recently co-authored a law school textbook, Public Health Law. Her research focuses on patient and human rights in health, risk regulation, public health surveillance, health insurance, managed care and ERISA.

Practitioner in Residence

2007–2008

Timothy P. Blanchard
Partner, McDermott Will & Emery LLP

A member of McDermott Will and Emery's health department, Mr. Blanchard focuses on health care regulatory issues. He is a frequent speaker and writer on health care reimbursement, regulatory and false claims issues. Blanchard has testified before the House Committee on Small Business regarding Medicare coverage and payment policy and addressed GAO staff on medical necessity policy issues. He is active in the AHLA, recently completed service on its Board of Directors, and chairs the AHLA Annual Institute on Medicare and Medicaid Payment issues. Mr. Blanchard is a Fellow of the Healthcare Financial Management Association and a member of the organization's editorial review board. He is also a member of multiple health industry advisory boards including CCH Health Care and the American Academy of Professional Coders.

FALL — Nov. 30

Keith A. Wailoo, Ph.D.
Institute for Health, Health Care Policy and Aging Research
Martin Luther King, Jr. Professor of History, Department of History
Rutgers University
Photo by John Sheretz

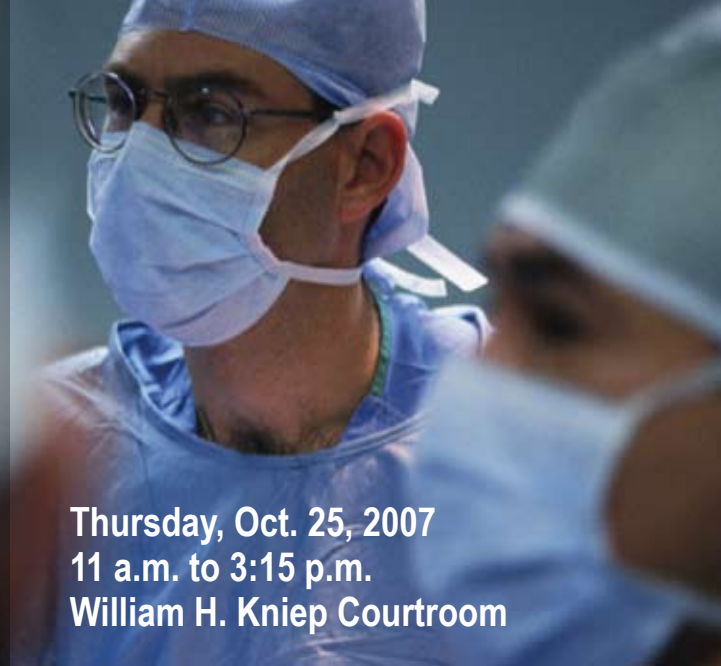

Center for Health Care Ethics Distinguished Lecturer

Professor Wailoo is the author of several books examining how patterns of disease change over time in America, focusing especially on the ways in which scientific and technological advances have interacted with health care politics, racial and ethnic relations, and cultural politics to inform responses to disease in the 20th century and into the 21st century.

Wailoo will discuss a project funded by a Robert Wood Johnson Investigator Award, The Cultural Politics of Pain: Medicine, Society and the Struggle for Relief in America.

Physician Ownership of Hospitals and Other Health Facilities: Antitrust and Policy Issues

Thursday, Oct. 25, 2007
11 a.m. to 3:15 p.m.
William H. Kniep Courtroom

Center for Health Law Studies
Saint Louis University
School of Law

3700 Lindell Blvd.
St. Louis, MO 63108

Co-Sponsored by American Bar
Association Section of Antitrust
Law and the Saint Louis Area
Health Lawyers Association.

R.S.V.P. is required for lunch and CLE credits. E-mail jauerma@slu.edu or call 314-977-3067
for more information.

11 to 11:15 — Welcome

- Mark J. Botti
Partner, Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP
- Thomas L. Greaney
Chester A. Myers Professor of Law Co-Director, Center for Health Law Studies, Saint Louis University School of Law

11:15 to 12:30 — Panel on Policy Issues

- Jay D. Christiansen
Partner, Faegre & Benson LLP
- Wes M. Cleveland
Senior Counsel, Private Sector Advocacy Group
American Medical Association
- Daniel Landon
Senior Vice President of Governmental Relations
Missouri Hospital Association

12:30 to 1:30 — Lunch

1:30 to 3:15 — Panel on Antitrust Issues

- David A. Argue
Corporate VP & Principal, Economists Incorporated
- Glenn Davis
Partner, Armstrong Teasdale LLP
- Barry J. Joyce
Trial Attorney, U.S. Department of Justice Antitrust Division

SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY
School of Law
3700 Lindell Blvd., Rm. 158
St. Louis, MO 63108

CENTER FOR HEALTH LAW STUDIES

Programs and Speakers

2007–2008
ACADEMIC YEAR

3700 Lindell Boulevard
St. Louis, MO 63108
314.977.3067
law.slu.edu/healthlaw