DISTINGUISHED VISITING INTERNATIONAL JURIST PUBLIC LECTURE

JUDGE LECH GARLICKI
VISITING PROFESSOR OF LAW
AND GRUBER GLOBAL CONSTITUTIONALISM FELLOW

Lech Garlicki is an impressive Polish jurist who has served on both the Constitutional Court of Poland and the European Court of Human Rights in Strasbourg. His primary teaching and research interests focus on constitutional law, judicial review, European law, comparative law, human rights, and comparative government.

He has been teaching at various world-class universities in recent years and will teach a 2-credit course on human rights for SLU LAW during the second half of Spring 2017.