POLICING POST-FERGUSON

Keynote Speaker:

Robert P. McCulloch
St. Louis County Prosecuting Attorney

This year's Public Law Review Symposium will address the legal challenges to law enforcement. Today's law enforcement officers face new hurdles in an era marked by social media, smart phones, a 24-hour news cycle, citizen journalists, and a growing divide between local police and the people they are called to serve.

With the world's attention turned on Ferguson, Missouri, critique of law enforcement procedure, tactics and behavior is at an all-time high. Through hosting panels on Policing the Protests and Policing the Police, The Thin Blue Line: Policing Post-Ferguson will identify legal challenges that face law enforcement on the streets today. This year's event will bring together academics, law enforcement officers, and practitioners to engage in a candid discussion of the changing environment where police officers are working.

Check-in: 8:30 - 9 am; Symposium begins at 9 am
Saint Louis University School of Law
John K. Pruellage Courtroom
12th Floor, 100 N. Tucker Blvd., St. Louis, MO 63101
