

INTERNATIONAL AND COMPARATIVE LAW

IMPORTANT: Please fill out all information, attach an unofficial transcript and submit to Faculty Secretary Helga Oestreicher no later than September 16 (Dec. graduates) or February 3 (May/Aug. graduates). PLEASE TYPE OR PRINT

Name _____ Banner ID _____ Date _____

REQUIRED COURSE
COURSE TITLE	PROFESSOR	SEMESTER / YEAR	CREDIT HOURS	GRADE
International Law

ELECTIVE COURSES: Students must complete at least 7 additional credit hours in international or comparative law. A full list of courses which fulfill this requirement are listed on the concentration webpage.

COURSE TITLE	PROFESSOR	SEMESTER / YEAR	CREDIT HOURS	GRADE
Admiralty
Anthropology of Law
Civil & Political Rights of Immigrants
Conflict of Laws
Global and Economic Justice
Immigration Law
International Business Transactions
International Human Rights
International Sale of Goods
International Taxation
International Trade Law
Jessup Moot Court
National Security
Seminars (approved by advisor):
Other (approved by advisor):
Summer Law Program (Madrid) course:
Summer Law Program (Madrid) course:
Summer Law Program (Madrid) course:
Semester Abroad Program:

WRITING REQUIREMENT: Students must complete at least one substantial paper on a topic in international or comparative law. If the paper is written for a class outside of the Center (including a directed research project), the topic must be pre-approved and subsequently reviewed by a member of the CICL faculty with that area of expertise.
Note: Students participating in a semester abroad program are exempt from this requirement.

COURSE TITLE	PROFESSOR	SEMESTER / YEAR	CREDIT HOURS	GRADE

Student has completed the requirements of the International and Comparative Law concentration: Yes No

Concentration Advisor Signature _____ Date _____